FAIRLIE WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised with nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Church, Fairlie, on Tuesday, by Rev. Father Barra. Miss K. Wade, daughter of the late Mrs T. Harnett and Phillip Quinn, third son of Mr William Quinn, Makikihi, were the contracting parties.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr E. Wade, looked charming in a dress of white crepe-de-chine. The veil was of Milanese lace, arranged in mop cap style, with wreath of orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Harnett, who was attired in a pretty frock of mauve crepe-de-chine and silver lace and silver head dress, with silver shoes and stockings to tone.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr Frank Quinn, as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Kia-ora, where the quests were received by the bride's aunt, Mrs J. Robinson, who was attired in a dress of black satin and carried a posy of cream roses and fern. After the breakfast, when the usual toasts were honoured, the newly-wedded couple left by car for the south.
