

William Alexander Hyndman

Known as uncle Bill

Worked as a farm labourer before the first World War.

He lost his hand in the war and lived in the Hyndman house at Cave until his death in 1958.

After the war he was caretaker for the Cave domain.

We can remember also the orchard out the back of the house which was next door to the domain.

FULL NAME	William Hyndman
FORENAME(S)	William
SURNAME	Hyndman
WAR	World War I, 1914-1918
SERIAL NO.	55501
FIRST KNOWN RANK	Private
OCCUPATION BEFORE ENLISTMENT	Farm labourer
NEXT OF KIN	A. Hyndman (father), Cave, New Zealand
BODY ON EMBARKATION	New Zealand Expeditionary Force
EMBARKATION UNIT	28th Reinforcements Canterbury Infantry Regiment, C Company
EMBARKATION DATE	26 July 1917
PLACE OF EMBARKATION	Wellington, New Zealand
TRANSPORT VESSEL	HMNZT 90 Ulimaroa
DESTINATION	Plymouth, England
NOMINAL ROLL NUMBER	69
PAGE ON NOMINAL ROLL	24
MEMORIAL NAME	Cave War Memorial, Otago, New Zealand
DESCRIPTION OF IMAGE	Cave War Memorial, Otago. Photo donated by Brian Davison, 2009
ARCHIVES NZ SOURCE	Military personnel file
FURTHER REFERENCES	Cave War memorial, New Zealand History Online, Ministry for Culture and Heritage
SOURCES USED	Nominal Rolls of New Zealand Expeditionary Force Volume III. Wellington: Govt. Printer, 1918

FAREWELL SOCIAL AT CAVE:
A FAREWELL SOCIAL AND PRESENTATION

To Privates W. Hyndman and J. Grahame, who are on final leave, will be held in the Cave Hall, on THURSDAY NEXT, July 5th, commencing at 8 p.m.

Soldiers on leave and returned men are cordially invited to be present.

Admission—
Gentlemen 2s. Ladies a Basket.

4 July 1917

Private W. Hyndman, of Cave, returned home from the front on Monday night, having arrived by the Marama. Private Hyndman who lost a hand at the war, was given a hearty welcome home, and was motored from Timaru to his home at Cave.

CAVE.

A DANCE and PRESENTATION of MEDALS to Private W. Hyndman, Trooper W. McQuarters, Privates T. Gallop and R. Nelson. will be held in the Cave Hall, on SEPTEMBER 24th. Grand March 8 p.m. Supper Provided. Good Music. Prices: Gents 2s 6d, Ladies 1s 6d.

M. BRULAND,
Hou. Secretary.

20 Sept 1919

The Medal below was presented to Bill by the people of Cave on his return from War

