The bugles of the Motherland
Ring ceaselessly across the sea
To call him and his lean brown band
To shape Imperial destiny.

The goal unknown, the cost un-

The promise of his blood fulfilled,
The bravest thing God ever made.

THE ROLL OF HONOUR.

CASUALTY LISTS NOS. 356-357

O may I join the choir invisible
Of those immortal dead who live again
In minds made better by their presence: live

In pulses stirred to generosity,
In deeds of daring rectitude, in scorn
For miserable aims that end with self.

... May I reach
That purest heaven, be to other souls
The cup of strength in some great agony.

So shall I join the choir invisible Whose music is the gladness of the world.

—George Eliot.
