

Timaru Herald. 5 June 1918 (Papers Past) [19/04/2014]

On Friday last a very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Sergeant and Mrs Fitzgerald to mark the occasion of the departure of their nephew, Sergeant-Major Cullinane, who has been spending his final leave with them prior to going to the front. A presentation, which consisted of a handsome wallet and shaving outfit, was made by his Temuka friends. Sergeant-Major Cullinane, who has just reached his twentieth birthday, has been serving on the pay staff for the past three years.

Timaru Herald. 7 June 1918 (Papers Past) [19/04/2014]

Sergeant-Major Cullinane, a nephew of Sergeant Fitzgerald of Temuka, who has been serving on the pay staff for the past three years, and has just reached his 20th birthday, leaves with the 38th Reinforcements for active service.

Temuka Leader. 6 June 1918 (Papers Past) [28/09/2023]

On Friday last a very pleasant evening was sent at the residence of Sergeant and Mrs Fitzgerald, Temuka, to mark the occasion of the departure of their nephew, Sergeant-Major Cullinane, who has been spending his final leave with them prior to going to the front. Cards and other games were indulged in, and a presentation was made consisting of a very handsome wallet and shaving outfit from his Temuka friends. The usual toasts were honoured. Sergeant-Major Cullinane, who has just reached his twentieth birthday, has been serving on the pay staff for the past three years. He leaves with the 38th Reinforcements.

Temuka Leader. 4 October 1919 (Papers Past) [29/09/2023]

YESTERDAY'S WELCOME.

Yesterday two more men for Temuka - Sergeant Cullinane and Corporal Turnbull — arrived by the 3.20 express train from the North. On the train coming into the station, the Municipal Brass Band, under Mr Burtenshaw, played a welcoming air, and the ladies were soon busy distributing fruit and cigarettes amongst the men who were going further south. It was stated that there were about 150 returned soldiers on the train, some belonging to as far south as Invercargill. As soon as the train had left the local men were motored to the Post Office, where a large crowd had gathered to welcome them. The Mayor extended to them a hearty welcome on behalf of town and district. They had been away and done their duty, and now that they had returned they were deserving of all honour and all were proud of them. On behalf of Temuka he thanked them for the services they had rendered to their country.

The men having been heartily cheered, Sergeant Cullinane, in returning thanks for the welcome on behalf of his comrade and himself, said that he did not really belong to Temuka, but his uncle and aunt lived here and he had spent his final leave here so he had come to look on Temuka as his home. He thanked them for their welcome, and being a stranger, he appreciated it all the more.

Corpl. Turnbull also expressed his thanks, and after further cheers the men were motored to their homes in cars supplied by Messrs Hally and Kellahan.

Waikato Times. 2 December 1922 (Papers Past) [27/09/2023]

At the Public Trust office on Thursday Mr F. Moore, the District Trustee, on behalf of the staff, presented Mr T. W. Cullinane, on the eve of his marriage, with a handsome clock and set of silver teaspoons, and in doing so conveyed to the recipient their best wishes for his future welfare. Mr Cullinane in appropriate words suitably acknowledged the gift.

Waikato Times. 9 December 1922 (Papers Past) [27/09/2023]

WEDDINGS.

CULLINANE — BUCKLAND.

At St. George's Church, Hamilton, last Wednesday evening, the Rev. Frank Harty solemnised the marriage of Miss Maude ("Pat") Buckland, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Buckland, and Mr. T. W. Cullinane, the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. Cullinane, of Wellington. The church was filled with the friends of the happy couple, testifying to the esteem in which they are held. The service was choral, the boys' choir singing appropriate hymns and psalms. Mr. Moore officiated at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in a rich dress of ivory satin beaute, embroidered in pearl, and a worked net veil with coronet of orange blossoms completed her toilet. She carried an exquisite sheaf of lillies. The bridesmaids were Misses Lorna and Connie Buckland, sisters of the bride, the former being attired in a dress of deep pink crepe-de-chene, with black picture hat, and the latter pale blue silk with black hat and forget-me-nots. Both carried Victorian bouquets of pink and blue sweet peas and maiden hair fern. As the bridal party left the church to the strains of the Wedding March, they were greeted with showers of confetti and rose petals. The bridegroom was attended by Messrs A. Paterson and R. Buckland. After the ceremony, the guests were entertained at "Holton," the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty repast was partaken of, the capacious dining room being decorated with streamers and a large marriage bell, giving a pleasing effect. The usual toasts were honoured and best wishes extended to the newly-married couple for their future happiness. The bride's mother received the guests in a rich dress of black merv silk pannelled in gold lace. The gift of the bridegroom to his bride was a nigger brown marabou, and to the bridesmaids gold bangles.

Amongst those present were the Rev. F. and Mrs. Harty, Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Greenslade, Mr. and Mrs. Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Radford, Mesdames Jobe (Mt. Albert), Paterson, Jones, Clark, Mahon, and Misses Florence Buckland (Opotiki), Howe, Jones, Choate, Thorpe, Noonan, Watson, Postgate, Aitken (2), McKenzie, Grace, Paterson (2), Bright, Messrs Parlane, Boardman, Tanner, Ingram, Woods, O'Grady, Riddick, MacFittall, Little, Wylie, Rhodes, Spencer, Prendergast, E. Johnston, King, P. Johnston, Hoyes, Reid.

The presents which were numerous, included several cheques, one being from Messrs Swarbrick and Swarbrick the bride's late employers. The happy couple left by express for the South, the bride travelling in a grey gabardine tailored costume neatly braided, with silver hat and touches of kingfisher blue.

Waikato Times. 30 December 1922 (Papers Past) [27/09/2023]

MARRIAGE

CULLINANE—BUCKLAND.—On December 6, 1922, at St. George's Church, Frankton, Maude, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs G. E. Buckland, Frankton, to Mr T. W. Cullinane, of Hamilton. 698