

Evening Star. 14 September 1915 (Papers Past) [05 June 2016]

Mr S. E. Brent, accountant of this City, received word this morning that his younger son, Trooper Theodore Daniel Brent, of the Canterbury Yeomanry Cavalry, was killed in action on the 21st August. The deceased was born in Outram on the 24th June, 1889. When the war broke out he was working on the land in South Canterbury. He was one of the first to enlist, and left with the main body. Apart from his relatives, he will be missed by a number of people to whom he endeared himself by many thoughtful, kind actions. His old school-mates will remember him by the nickname of "Barney."

Press. 15 September 1915 (Papers Past) [05 June 2016]

THE FALLEN AND WOUNDED. TROOPER T. D. BRENT.

Mr S. E. Brent, accountant, of Dunedin, received word yesterday that his younger son, Trooper Theodore Daniel Brent, of the Canterbury Yeomanry Cavalry, was killed in action on August 21st. Trooper Brent was born in Outram in 1889. When the war broke out he was working on the land in South Canterbury. He was one of the first to enlist, and left with the Main Body.

Auckland Star. 15 September 1915 (Papers Past) [05 June 2016]

THE ROLL OF HONOUR. TROOPER T. D. BRENT.

Mr. S. E. Brent, accountant, of Dunedin, received word yesterday that his younger son, Trooper Theodore Daniel Brent, of the Canterbury Yeomanry Cavalry, had been killed in action on the 21st August. Trooper Brent was born in Outram on the 24th June 1889. When the war broke out he was working on the land in South Canterbury. He was one of the first to enlist, and left with the main body of the Expeditionary Force.

PRIVATEES KILLED AND DIED OF WOUNDS. ETC.

Trooper Theodore Daniel Brent, 2nd Company, A Squadron, Canterbury Yeomanry Cavalry (killed in action), was the younger son of Mr S. E. Brent, public accountant, of Dunedin. The deceased was born at Outram on June 24, 1889. As a boy he was an enthusiastic member of the George Street School Cadets, and afterwards of the Kaikorai School Cadets, both of which schools he attended. When the war broke out he was working on the land in South Canterbury.