

Waimate Daily Advertiser. 4 October 1922 (Papers Past) [01/12/2023]

WEDDING.

KAAN—EADE.

St Paul's Church was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding recently, when Miss Alice Goldsworthy Eade, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Eade, Waimate, was married to Mr Richard Henry Kaan, second son of Mr and Mrs J. Kaan, Waimate. The Rev. W. Beckett was the officiating minister. The church was beautifully decorated with streamers of spring flowers, while above the bridal pair was suspended a beautiful floral bell. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a smart navy serge costume trimmed with black braid, and a spring model hat trimmed with fruit. She carried a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers. Miss Bessie Eade, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid, wearing a saxe blue silk frock and hat to match and carrying a bouquet of spring flowers. Mr G. Kaan, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony, the guests were entertained at afternoon tea at the residence of the bride's parents, when the usual toasts were honoured. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents, including a present to the bridegroom of a set of irons from his fellow employers, a quilt from Mr Middleditch, and from the Hook and Lansdown residents, a sea-grass chair and pair of vases.

Waimate Daily Advertiser. 7 October 1922 (Papers Past) [01/12/2023]

Owing to misunderstanding in the report of the recent wedding of Mr R. H. Kaan to Miss Eade, it should have been stated that a present of a sea grass chair and a pair of vases was sent from the residents of Waituna, Upper Hook and Lansdowne districts.