

Greymouth Evening Star. 22 June 1918 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

Writing from Hornchurch Hospital in April, Private Arthur Mairs, of Westport, says: "At Richmond Hospital there were only four New Zealanders, but here there are two thousand. We have our own doctors and nurses; in fact, everything in New Zealand." He mentions that he saw Demetric Mangos, of Lyell. He had been gassed, but was pretty well right again.

Grey River Argus. 9 July 1918 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

Mrs Mangos, Lyell, received a telegram from Minister of Defence regretting to inform her that a cable was received reporting that her son, D. Mangos, was seriously ill from pneumonia in New Zealand General Hospital.

Greymouth Evening Star. 29 November 1924 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

Miss A. Mangos, of Ngakawau, left yesterday for Christchurch, where her brother, Mr D. Mangos, is ill from the effects of gas during the Great War.

Grey River Argus. 1 April 1927 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

The death took place at Christchurch yesterday morning of Demente, youngest son of Mrs Mangos, of Chapel St., Greymouth. Deceased, who was thirty years of age, served in the Great War, where he was severely gassed, and had since been in very indifferent health. He leaves a wife and two sons, also four brothers and seven sisters, including Mrs Crase, of the Gilmer Hotel, and Mrs Conaghan, junior, of Chapel Street. The funeral takes place at Christchurch to-day.

Hokitika Guardian. 1 April 1927 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

The death took place at Christchurch yesterday morning of Demente, youngest son of Mrs Mangos, of Chapel St., Greymouth. Deceased, who was thirty years of age, served in the Great War, where he was severely gassed, and had since been in very indifferent health. He leaves a wife and two sons, also four brothers and seven sisters, including Mrs Crase, of the Gilmer Hotel, and Mrs Conaghnn, junior, of Chapel Street. Greymouth.

Greymouth Evening Star. 1 April 1927 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

The. death of Mr Demente Mangos, youngest son of Mr [sic] Mangos, Chapel Street, Greymouth, occurred at Christchurch yesterday. The late Mr Mangos was 30 years of age and served in the Great War, in which he was gassed. He leaves a wife and two sons, also four brothers and seven sisters, of whom Mrs S. Crase of the Gilmer Hotel, and Mrs J. Conaghan, reside in Greymouth. The funeral takes place to-day at Christchurch.

Hokitika Guardian. 11 September 1917 (Papers Past) [26/10/2025]

Cabled news comes of the death from wounds, of Rifleman Wm. Mangos, a member of the well-known Lyell family. Deceased who was some 32 years of age was engaged in contracting before he enlisted. He leaves a widow and one child just recently born.

Colonist. 13 September 1917 (Papers Past) [20/06/2016]

Rifleman William Mangos, of Lyell, who has died of wounds, leaves a widow and an infant child. At the time of his enlistment Rifleman Mangos was a contractor in the Lyell district. He was a native of Lyell, and aged 32 years.