WEDDING.

STOWELL—HAYWARD.

On Friday, March 9th, a quiet wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Timaru, when the Rev. J. H. Rogers united in the bonds of matrimony Miss Vida Hayward, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs L. Hayward, Pareora East, and Mr F. Stowell, fifth son of Mrs Stowell, also of Pareora East. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss E. Hayward bridesmaid, - and Mr Brickell was best man. Owing to both bride and bridegroom having brothers at the front, only relatives were at the wedding. Mr Stowell proceeds immediately to Trentham.

On Monday afternoon the workmates of Mr Fred Stowell gathered together at Pareora freezing works to say good-bye to him, on the eve of his departure for camp, and to wish him a safe return to the Dominion. That Mr Stowell is held in great esteem was very evident from the pleasant little gathering that took place, and one and all much regret the loss of so popular a fellow-workman. In a few appropriate words Mr Hurst asked Mr Stowell to accept a fountain pen as a farewell gift from the men, to which the recipient suitably responded.
