

PRIVATE J. P. J. DRISCOLL, SEADOWN.

Private J. P. J. Driscoll, Seadown, Otago Battalion, wounded at the Dardanelles, is the sixth son of Mr. Timothy Driscoll, Seadown, and is 24 years of age. He was educated at the Seadown Public School and the Kerrytown Convent School. Prior to enlisting, he was employed in a grain store, and later on in a flour mill in Mataura. He was a very keen footballer, playing fullback for the Pioneer Eastern District Football Club. He left with the 1st Otago Reinforcements, and was wounded in the shoulder.

PRIVATE JAMES P. J. DRISCOLL,
Temuka.
Wounded at the Dardanelles.