

Waimate Daily Advertiser. 25 November 1926 (Papers Past) [22/07/2024]

A POPULAR TOWNSMAN.
MR J. COUNIHAN FAREWELLED.

A representative gathering of farmers, fat stock buyers, auctioneers and agents, met at the rooms of the Waimate A. and P. Association on Saturday afternoon, November 20th, to bid farewell to one of the leading stock buyers of the Waimate district in the person of Mr John Counihan, of the firm of Messrs Sims Cooper and Co.

Mr G. B. Creemer occupied the chair and in making reference to the departure of Mr Counihan for Timaru, spoke in glowing terms of the esteem in which their departing guest was held by the farming community, as well as the mercantile firms doing business in South Canterbury.

The sterling character of Mr Counihan was amply testified to by the following speakers, Mr J. K. Blair, Mr John McFarlane, Mr M. Friel, Mr R. Kirk, Mr L. J. Smith, Mr Jon. Cooney, Mr C. Macfie and Mr Alex McPherson. A large number of apologies were received from those unavoidably absent.

The Chairman then called upon Mr Murdoch McRae to make the presentation. In handing to Mr Counihan a well filled wallet of notes the speaker also paid tribute to the business ability and upright character of their guest.

All joined in wishing Mr and Mrs Counihan and family every success in their new sphere and extended the same good feeling towards Mr Don. Borrie, the new representative for the firm in the Waimate district.

Timaru Herald. 25 November 1926 (Papers Past) [22/07/2024]

A representative gathering of farmers, stock buyers, auctioneers and agents, met at the rooms of the Waimate A. and P. Association on Saturday to bid farewell to one of the leading stock buyers of the district, Mr John Counihan, of Sims, Cooper and Co. Mr G. B. Creemer occupied the chair, and in making reference to the departure of Mr Counihan for Timaru, spoke in glowing terms of the esteem in which their departing guest was held by the farming community, as well as the mercantile firms doing business in South Canterbury. The sterling character of Mr Counihan was amply testified to by the following speakers — Mr J. K. Blair, Mr John McFarlane, Mr H Friel, Mr R. Kirk, Mr L. J. Smith, Mr Jno. Cooney, Mr C. McFie, and Mr Alex McPherson. A large number of apologies were received from those unavoidably absent. The chairman then called upon Mr Murdoch McRae to make the presentation. In handing to Mr Counihan a well filled wallet of notes, the speaker also paid tribute to the business ability and upright character of their guest. All joined in wishing Mr and Mrs Counihan and family every success in their new sphere, and extended the same good feeling towards Mr Don. Borrie, the new representative for the firm.