For Director of Base Records.

Important.—Upon discharge a soldier is entitled to £5 5s. allowance to procure plain clothes. He may obtain a warrant for the allowance at any Group office upon production of this notice of discharge and returning his military greatcoat. As no duplicate notice of discharge can be issued, great care must be taken not to lose or destroy it until the £5 5s. warrant has been received.

Application must be made within five (5) weeks from the date of receipt of notice of discharge.

When a soldier cannot make a personal visit to the Group office, application may be made by post provided greatcoat and notice of discharge are forwarded (postage prepaid) to a Group Commander, and a £5 5s. warrant will be sent him by registered post. For list of towns in which a Group Commander is located, see back hereof.

Attention is drawn to the conditions laid down in the Returned Soldier's Handbook. Soldiers returned under paragraph 2 (c) are not entitled to multi-allowance. Soldiers on leave receive full pay but no lodging-allowance.

Greatcoat value £2/- not retained
 £3/4/6 balance £5/5/- multi credited pay A/c.
