

Timaru Herald. 20 May 1930 (Papers Past) [01/07/2023]

WEDDING.
QUINN—DOSSETT.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated recently at St. Mary's Church, Pleasant Point, when Mary, daughter of Mr and Mrs H. Dossett, was married to John, son of Mrs and the late Mr W. Quinn, of "Annalong," Makikihi. The church was beautifully decorated with bronze chrysanthemums, Michaelmas daisies and autumn leaves by the Sisters of St. Joseph. Rev. Father Tymons, S.M., performed the ceremony, and afterwards celebrated Nuptial Mass. Miss J. Phelan officiated at the organ. During the Mass, the choir and Convent school children sang appropriate hymns.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a sleeveless gown of white tulle and silver over a slip of ivory crepe de chene. It had a tight-fitting corsage of silver, finished with a large spray of silver flowers at the waistline. The skirt fell in graceful folds to the ankles, and the hemline was daintily scalloped in silver. She wore silver shoes and stockings, and carried an ivory and silver prayer book. The veil of flimsy tulle was daintily embroidered, and was held in place with a coronet of pearls and sprays of orange blossom on either side. Miss Maisie Maze, as bridesmaid, wore a frock of cream taffetas and georgette, with a scalloped hemline. This was worn over a slip of lemon satin. She wore a cream drooping crinoline hat, with a cluster of lemon velvet flowers under the side, also lemon satin shoes and stockings to match her frock. Her bouquet was of lemon and cream flowers, and maidenhair fern. The bridegroom was attended by Mr V. Dossett as best man.

After the ceremony, Mr and Mrs H. Dossett entertained a large number of guests at the Town Hall. Later, when Mr and Mrs J. J. Quinn left by car for the North Island, the bride was wearing a gold lace frock under a Peschaniki fur coat and brown felt hat to match. Prior to her marriage, Mrs Quinn was entertained at an evening by friends, and presented with a handsome dinner set and cutlery from the town people, a clock and piece of Doulton ware from the Pleasant Point Football Club, and a painting from the choir.