

Timaru Herald. 19 October 1915 (PP) [08/02/2016]

On Friday evening last, Messrs Ted Brosnahan and P. J. Brosnahan were tendered an enthusiastic send-off by the residents of Kerrytown. The Rev. Father Kerley, in asking them to accept a wristlet watch each, eulogised them for coming forward in defence of their country; he was proud of them as Kerrytown boys, and wished them every success and a safe return. The Rev. Ainsworth also spoke and his remarks were supplemented by Messrs J. Breen, G. Crozier, S. Coughlan, T. Fitzgerald and L Brosnahan. Both volunteers suitably responded and were heartily cheered on sitting down. Supper was dispensed and a pleasant dance concluded the evening.

Timaru Herald. 12 August 1916 (PP) [08/02/2016]

KILLED IN ACTION.
PRIVATE T. J. BROSNAHAN.

Private Timothy John Brosnahan, who was killed in Flanders during July, was a son of Mr Hugh Brosnahan, of Kerrytown. He was a man of bright and cheerful disposition, and was one of the most popular young fellows in the district.

Sun. 21 August 1916 (PP) [08/02/2016]

FOR KING AND EMPIRE.
KILLED IN ACTION.
PRIVATE T. J. BROSNAHAN.

Private Timothy ("Ted") Brosnahan, aged 26, was a son of Mr H. Brosnahan, of Kerrytown, near Timaru, and a brother of Mr Hugh Brosnahan, of 21 Spencer Street, Addington. He left New Zealand with the 9th Reinforcement, and was killed in action in France on July 16. A brother, Sapper P. J. Brosnahan, who also left with the 9th Reinforcement, was wounded on June 15, and according to the latest reports was getting on well in hospital at Birmingham, England.

Press. 22 August 1916 (PP) [08/02/2016]

THE FALLEN AND WOUNDED.
PERSONAL NOTES.

Private Timothy John Brosnahan (killed in action) was the third son of Mr Hugh Brosnahan, late of Kerrytown. He was born at Kerrytown 26 years ago, and received his education at St. Joseph's School. He was a prominent member of the Pleasant Point Football Club. His elder brother, Patrick J. Brosnahan, was wounded in France on June 16th, and is now in hospital in Birmingham, England.

Otago Witness. 30 August 1916 (PP) [01/02/2026]

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

Private Timothy John Brosnahan (killed in action) was born in Kerrytown 26 years ago, and was the third son of Mr Hugh Brosnahan, late of Kerrytown. His brother, Sapper P. J. Brosnahan, also serving with the Ninth, was wounded on June 15.

NZ Tablet. 07 September 1916 (PP) [19/08/2016]

ROLL OF HONOR

PRIVATE TIMOTHY JOHN (TED) BROSNAHAN.

Private T. J. Brosnahan (writes our Christchurch correspondent), reported killed in action in France on July 16, was the third son of Mr. Hugh Brosnahan, late of Kerrytown, South Canterbury, and now resident at Ethelton. The deceased was born at Kerrytown and educated at St. Joseph's Convent School there. He was 26 years of age, and left with the 9th Reinforcements and spent some time in Egypt. Prior to enlisting he was employed on the Dominion Railways. The deceased's brother, Private P. J. Brosnahan, also of the 9th Reinforcements, is reported wounded on July 15, just the day before the other brother met his death.

[No other record found for employment with Railways.]

North Otago Times. 09 September 1916 (PP) [14/10/2013]

PERSONAL NOTES

Private Timothy John (Ted) Brosnahan.

Private T. Brosnahan, reported killed in action in France on July 16, was the third son of Mr Hugh Brosnahan, late of Kerrytown, South Canterbury, and now resident at Ethelton. The deceased was born at Kerrytown and educated at St. Joseph's Convent School there. He was twenty-six years of age, and left with the Ninth Reinforcements and spent some time in Egypt. Prior to enlisting he was employed on the Dominion Railways. The deceased's brother, Private P. J. Brosnahan, also of the Ninth Reinforcements, is reported wounded on July 15, just the day before the other brother met his death.

[No other record found for employment with Railways.]

Timaru Herald. 19 October 1915 (PP) [08/02/2016]

Sun. 21 August 1916 (PP) [12/07/2023]

PRIVATE T. J. BROSNAHAN,
Killed in Action.

Otago Witness. 30 Aug 1916 (PP) [12/07/2023]

Private Timothy J. Brosnahan
(Canterbury), killed.