

PRIVATE T. F. SULLIVAN.

went away with the Twenty-sixth Reinforcements. He was farming with his people in South Canterbury before enlistment. His brother, Corporal E. J. Sullivan, who left with the Eleventh

CORPORAL E. J. SULLIVAN.

Reinforcements, has been twice wounded, first on January 6 and again in the present battle, and he is now in hospital also in England. He will be twenty-five years old next July. He was in Pleasant Point, South Canterbury, before he enlisted.

STAR (CHRISTCHURCH), ISSUE 12295, 18 APRIL 1918, PAGE 6

Using This Item

Star Media Company Ltd is the copyright owner for the Star (Christchurch). You can reproduce in-copyright material from this newspaper for non-commercial use under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International licence (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0). This newspaper is not available for commercial use without the consent of Star Media. For advice on reproduction of out-of-copyright material from this newspaper, please refer to the Copyright guide.