

Timaru Herald. 18 December 1916 (page 7) [earlier]

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Mr C. Gosling, Levels, has received a letter from Chaplain Malden, concerning the death of Private C. W. Gosling in France. In it he states that he was writing to express his and that of the officers and men of deceased's unit's deepest sympathy. Private Gosling, who had proved a gallant soldier was killed by a shell in the early days of the Somme battle, and was buried at Thistle. Dump Station Cemetery,