WEDDINGS

PACKER—O'CONNOR

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Patrick's Church, Waimate on April 15th. Miss Hannah O'Connor, eldest daughter of Mrs and the late Mr J. O'Connor, Waikakahi, Morven, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony, to Mr James Packer, youngest son of the late Mr and Mrs Packer, Studholme. Nuptial Mass was celebrated, and the ceremony performed by the Rev. Father Peoples. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her brother (Jack), looked charming in a beautiful frock of ivory crepe suede, draped with radium lace and silver. Her embroidered veil was charmingly arranged, and held in place with sprays of orange blossom. She carried a lovely bouquet of asparagus fern and white flowers. Miss Hannah O'Connor (cousin of the bride) attended as bridesmaid, and looked very sweet in a dainty frock of apricot crepe de chine, trimmed with gold ribbons and tiny rosettes, with hat to match, and she carried a pretty posy of asparagus fern and chrysanthemums. Mr Denis O'Connor (brother of the bride) was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Savoy Tea Rooms, when the bride's mother entertained a number of relations and intimate friends.

Later in the day the happy couple left on their honeymoon trip to the north. Their future home will be at "Bankfield," St. Andrews.
